

SAN DIEGO COUNTY
Clerk of the Board of Supervisors

Introduces

BRUCE CORMANY
Volunteer of the Month
March, 2001

Bruce Cormany is a volunteer with the Street Lighting District within the Department of Public Works. The Street Lighting District maintains more than 8,000 street lights. In order to provide better service, they rely on volunteers to report burned-out street lights.

Bruce has donated two hours a day for the past 10 years. He locates and reports burned-out street lights in the Rancho San Diego area. Bruce's diligence and concern for the safety of his neighbors has provided the information necessary to quickly repair malfunctioning street lights, improve customer service, and reduce complaints from other residents.

Mr. Cormany currently works for the Department of Defense and serves as an officer in the U.S. Navy Reserve. He enjoys outdoor sports, including hiking and biking.
